

I would like the FCC to hold off on changing the rules on Broadcast Ownership, at least until we have had some more public hearings on the impact these rule changes may have on the media. I believe the chairman can make this decision still, and I strongly recommend that he does this. Thank you.